

$15.00

Kentucky Class Notes

Earn an A+ with Class Notes
<http://KentuckyClassNotes.com>

GLY 150 Schwabe

Test 1

This packet is a supplement to regular class attendance and is not designed to replace regular class attendance and participation. This packet is not required material for any class or by any staff or faculty member. This packet does not warrant any type of refund or return policy of any kind. The information presented in this packet is an interpretation of a lecture class and is not a direct copy of any professor's material. The layout and design of this packet is © 2009 Kentucky Class Notes LLC. Any reproduction of this packet is forbidden under federal copyright law.

Kentucky Class Notes

Earn an A+ with Class Notes
<http://KyClassNotes.com>
859.252.NOTE

GLY 150 Schwabe
Fall 2009
Test 1

8/26/09

- [REDACTED]
 - Sound requires particles to move through; since the Big Bang didn't have particles to move through, there was no sound.
 - No light because a strong gravitational pull prevented light from escaping.
- [REDACTED]
elements such as [REDACTED] and Hydrogen to form.
 - Fell to 900 million degrees 4 minutes later
 - Light begins to [REDACTED]
 - It fell to [REDACTED] million degrees 30 minutes later.
 - Water and hydrogen begin to appear
 - Stars began to form immediately.
 - [REDACTED]
 - 10 billion years later our solar system formed.
 - Life appeared on Earth at same time as one-celled organisms
 - 4.6 billion years after Earth was created humans arrived.
- Important Websites:
 - [REDACTED]
 - [REDACTED]
 - http://volcano.wr.usgs.gov/cvo/current_updates.php

8/28/09

No notes taken, discussion all hour on Earthquake and Volcano log.

8/31/09

[REDACTED]

9/2/09